Have a look at page 2 for a comprehensive list of the items for sale at our Caboolture Office. We have some printers in excellent working order, designer label clothing, ink cartridges and much much more.

We do have some room left in here, so if any of our members would like to place items of their stock in here to sell on a consignment basis we would love to hear from you about it.

I would love to hear from any of our members who are looking at selling or purchasing Real Estate, just give me a call to discuss your needs.

Happy Trading!! Mark Craig.

Introduction: Olive Leaf Extract

Out of the Mediterranean comes a herb of such potency it has broken all contemporary classification barriers and set new paradigms by which to judge herbal efficacy. This abundant immune-boosting herb has been employed by middle eastern cultures for centuries to treat a broad spectrum of microbial disorders. Olive Leaf Extract is a pure and potent product designed to enhance health naturally without side effects.

Olive Leaf Extract is beneficial against Arthritic type inflammations, Chronic Fatigue and Fibromyalgia, and can help in the normalisation of certain types of heart problems, improves blood flow, & gives prevention & relief from all types of viral problems (Influenza/Flu) . It also assists in the destruction of free radicals via its antioxidant action! This amazing extract also restores abundant energy with prolonged stamina!!

Notes from Brian

In my 40 years in the business world, developing international marketing strategies, I have found that a smart small business in today's economy needs to be innovative, flexible, dynamic and entrepreneurial. They need to continually challenge themselves and always look for better and more productive ways to conduct their business. A successful small business is able to clearly understand their clients, and be aware of new consumer preferences and be able to quickly adapt to them. They will be able to develop and maximise their competitive advantages, and quickly adopt new technologies that improve their bottom line.

We are here to help you develop the skills required to compete in today's rapidly changing and globally competitive marketplace. I encourage our members to make use of every tool available to them to improve their small business skills, and using E Banc Trade to its fullest advantage is a smart business move.

Regards, Brian Hanrahan.
