LATEST NEWS FROM HEAD OFFICE AUSTRALA

We have some exciting news for you. Our Australian exchange now has a new name
Empire Trade Exchange - and new owners.

Our new owners are extremely successful business men who have several years experience between them in establishing and developing companies both nationally and internationally. They have grand plans for the expansion and growth of the exchange and their innovative ideas will without doubt generate excitement and trading volume.

Some of the new services to be introduced to the exchange will include a Property Investment Trust to allow members to benefit from property investment without the major capital outlay normally required. We will also be launching a new look auction site with changes that we are sure will generate many trading opportunities for all.

Also introduced will be a large range of imported products from linen to bobcats offered at below retail prices with high trade percentages. We are in the process of creating an online catalogue of products that members in Australia and worldwide can utilize within their business and everyday lives. We at Empire Trade believe it is time for a trade dollar to be truly worth a cash dollar.

We are very excited by the opportunities that exist and believe that our Exchange is the best vehicle available within the barter industry to attract new trading members not only within Australia, but around the world. New Director, Chris Sun says he and his partners have an established network of business contacts in China and plan to introduce the exchange there in the New Year.

Chris has the utmost confidence in the existing team at head office who will still be available to assist members as usual, and the staff are very excited by the new direction of the Exchange and its future in the barter industry.

For you, as an exchange member, the only changes will be good ones - increased membership, increased trading volume, and a greater product range. It is business as normal, but with a brighter future for all exchange members.

If you have any questions or queries, please feel free to call Esther or Irene at 603 77810233 or our National Head Office on +6017 5437 7220
