New Empire Team for New Zealand

We extend a warm welcome to the new team operating Empire Trade New Zealand, and offer this introduction:

As the Exchange's National Agent in New Zealand, James Hobcraft is a busy and hard working member of the NZ team with over seven years experience in trade exchanges. James is familiar with other competition trade exchanges and their many advantages and disadvantages. James is working hard to gain new members in New Zealand who are offering great deals with either 50% or 100% Trade components. With a wealth of business and trade experience it is James' intention to develop a very balanced, fair and prosperous branch of the international trade exchange. With a passion for doing things once and doing them right it is James' desire to fill the gap for high quality services and products available in the NZ trade dollar market place.

Appointed to support the large Chinese membership sector, Michelle Li Wei (michelle.w@nz.empireXchange.com) has been living in New Zealand for the past four years. Michelle has worked hard on her knowledge of the English language and culture making her the ideal person to assist the Chinese members with communication and understanding when trading with Kiwi business members, and in turn helping us all work and grow together.

As the front of house team member, Dorothy (dorothy.f@nz.empireXchange.com) has over five years of customer service experience. Dorothy's attention to detail and expedient results will ensure that all of member enquiries regardless of detail will be handled professionally and with superb results. Dorothy will be the first point of contact for Empire Trade members in New Zealand.

James is motivated to get the Exchange established to its full potential in NZ as soon as possible and as a team he, Michelle and Dorothy have made rapid progress over the past two months. The new head office is based in Christchurch and will be open from the 1st of August 2007.

Feedback from Gary Hennessy in South Australia

Having just returned from Tasmania where I was on business, I would love to give a great big thank you to Maureen Healey and her staff at the Theatre Royal Hotel in Hobart. I spent 2 nights there and dined in the restaurant. The room was sensational and the bed was a Goldilocks bed - not too soft or hard, but just right, which is great for someone who has a bad back. The food was some of the best I have had on a business trip. There was absolutely no hesitation in taking Trade Dollars. Being situated right in the heart of the city, it was a short walk to everywhere plus being very accessible to the suburbs I had to visit. I can thoroughly recommend a stay there.

Theatre Royal Hotel Bar / Bistro

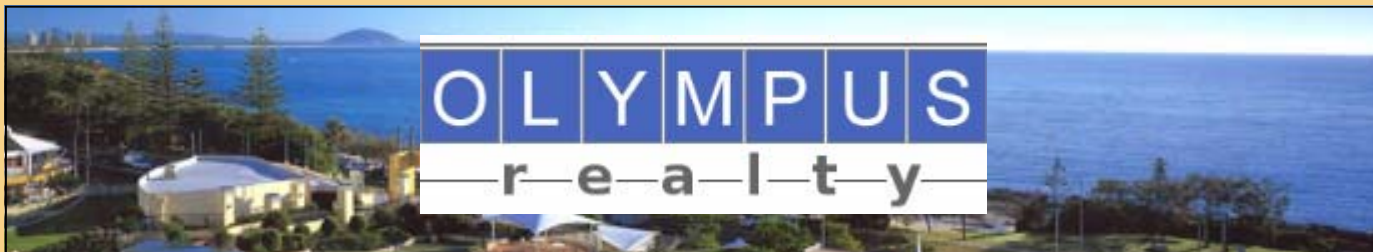

The Theatre Royal Hotel is a small, historic hotel in central Hobart.

The hotel offers 8 rooms for accommodation. Guests can dine at the Hotel's award-winning bistro, and there is also a bar and café. The Hotel is close to Hobart attractions including the waterfront and Salamanca Market, city cafes and restaurants, galleries, museums, entertainment venues and shopping outlets. Conference and function venues: bistro / bar and public bar are available for private functions such as 21st birthdays, engagements, weddings, socials, sporting clubs, bucks & hens nights. The function room holds up to 40 people

The Theatre Royal Hotel is located beside Australia's oldest working theatre. 'The Theatre Royal', which opened in 1837 and was once described by English actor, playwright and composer Noel Coward as "a dream of a theatre".
