WHERE YOU CAN SPEND YOUR TRADE CREDITS

Members spend their trade credits on property or goods and services. A successful trader will be active in sourcing goods and services on trade, however if you are new to the business of barter, you may not be aware of the many opportunities to spend your trade. Some of the goods and services currently available on part trade from within the membership are:

- Pay your telephone bills / internet with part trade.
- Office supplies such as stationery, couriers, office furniture, pest control, packaging, security services, toilet paper, water, toner cartridges, office equipment and repairs.
- Computer supplies and repairs.
- Web page design and other advertising needs.
- Cleaning products and services.
- Accommodation for business clients travelling interstate.
- Catering for functions.
- Promotional services such as printing, banners, sign writing, embroidery, uniforms and marketing.
- Promotional products and advertising.
- Professional services including solicitors, accountants, debt collection and financial advisors.
- Vehicle service and repairs.
- Reward your staff with trade.

The cash and trade dollars that you receive are earned from extra business you would not have gained if you were not an Empire Trade Member. So you see, if you spend your trade dollars on existing cash expenses such as the examples above, you are effectively conserving your cash dollars.

Webcasting can broadcast your events and duplicate it to DVD at an incredibly affordable rate

The process of creating live, network-style television can be very costly and require massive amounts of expensive equipment and a large crew of people. Webcasting changes all of that. In one lightweight, portable system we have all of the tools, including live virtual sets and 3 HD cameras, required to produce, live stream, broadcast, and project your show.

- Fast turn around and DVD duplication enabling confidence in pre-sales
- Complete Production service available easing your workload
- Switch live between 3 cameras for a professional production result
- Captured in full High Definition for high quality playback
- Can also be streamed live or on-demand online to a greater viewing audience
